

Deerfield Beach Orchid Society CATTLEYA CURRENTS

October 2023
Volume 58 Issue 10

President's Message

Hi Orchid Lovers,

I am looking forward to our October 10 meeting when Serena Roman, better known as "Lady Vanda", will be presenting her program on Vandas. Serena wants to help everyone start and grow their orchid collection, and her goal is to help everyone to feel supported through their journey with orchid cultivation. She will have orchids for sale and for the raffle table, so be sure to shop and to buy your raffle tickets for a chance to win.

We have so many activities coming up in the Deerfield Beach Orchid Society (DBOS) over the next few months, and your Board of Trustees and volunteers are excited and getting ready for each of our annual events. The DBOS picnic is Sunday, October 15 from noon to 4:00 pm at Tradewinds Park, 3600 W. Sample Road, Coconut Creek, FL 33073 in the Fritillary Pavilion. ORCHID BINGO is back! The winners receive an orchid. The picnic is FREE for DBOS members and $10.00 for our members' guests. Each member should bring either an appetizer, salad, main dish, side dish, and/or dessert. DBOS provides drinks, hamburgers, hot dogs, and buns. It is always lots of fun and there is ample time for visiting and getting to know each other better.

Our annual show and sale, Orchid Obsession, is on Saturday and Sunday, November 11-12 from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm both days at Safe Schools Institute in Boca Raton. Admission to the show is $5.00, children under 12 are free, and free parking.

Our orchid vendors this year are all fellow Floridians and include: Bredren Orchids, Apopka; Florida SunCoast Orchids, Myakka City; Jim-N-I Orchids, Redland; Krull-Smith Orchids, Apopka; Mac's Orchids, Southwest Ranches; Odom's Orchids, Fort Pierce; Orchids in Bloom, Apopka; Quest Orchids, Miami; Ritter Tropic 1 Orchids, Kissimmee; Smiley Orchids, Clermont; So Orchids, Lakeland; and Soroa Orchids, Homestead. Our non-orchid vendors are also Floridians and include: Atziana Inspired, Miami; Bactra Plant Stand Factory, Sunrise; Green Barn Orchid Supply, Delray Beach; Liquid Gold Honey, West Palm Beach; and Snowwhites Personal Creations, Delray Beach.

Our annual potluck holiday party will be Saturday, December 2 at the Croatian American Social Club. Members who attend receive a beautiful free orchid. It is $10.00 for a guest.

Looking ahead to 2024, we are already planning events. Mark your calendar for Saturday, January 27 for our annual bus trip. We will be heading South again this year and are presently contacting places for us to visit.

Sign-up sheets for the picnic will be available at the October meeting, and sign-up sheets for show volunteers, the holiday party, and the bus trip will be available at the October meeting and at the picnic.

We thank Jim Davison for providing a great presentation on Brassavola's at our September meeting. Jim and Melana had some beautiful orchids for our raffle table and for sale. Many of our members went home with some new beauties for their collections.

Happy Orchiding!

Speaker of the Month

Serena Roman

“Lady Vanda”

October 10, 2023 7:30 pm

“Vandas”

Hello, my name is Serena and I am Lady Vanda. Like most growers, I started out as a hobbyist just like you. The name Lady Vanda started with my grandma. Once my collection got a bit out of hand, she started calling me 'Señorita Vanda' and 'Señorita de las Orquideas'. The latter is quite the mouthful, so I decided to translate 'Señorita Vanda', thus Lady Vanda was born.

Lady Vanda started from my passion for orchids and nature in general. But I love to help others find their green thumb, even when they don't think they have one. I saw an opportunity to cater to the new generation of hobbyists. Most people find orchids intimidating and hard to care for. I want everyone of all age groups to be interested in orchids. I want to help everyone start and grow their orchid collection.

Through Lady Vanda Orchids, my goal is to help everyone feel supported through their journey with orchid cultivation. Aside from education, my focus is to bring a wide variety of plants to our customers, from common Vanda Hybrids to lesser known miniature species. All plants sold are blooming size, most have previously bloomed several times and are well established. Current inventory is a mixture of imported plants and plants we have grown from flasks purchased from other growers and hybridizers.

In 2023, I am ramping up our breeding program and looking to bring many new crosses, especially some intergenerics to the market. We look forward to another year of service with our customers, educating and supporting them as well as bringing new orchids to their collections.

October in Your Orchid Collection

By Dr. Martin Motes

October is a month of change in South Florida. If the Romans had lived here where we do, they would have named this month for their two faced god Janus. Usually around the middle of the month, and certainly by the end of the month, the first strong cold front pushes into South Florida bringing to a close the monolithic heat and damp of summer and ushering in weather as most of the continent knows it, alternating periods of warmer and cooler. Although warm temperatures will persist for another month or so until the technical end of the hurricane season, the tropics are in retreat and the temperate zone in the ascendancy. Each successive cold front foreshadowed by ever lessening rain storms will progressively cool our temperatures and dry our air. But days are shortening too, providing less hours of sunlight to heat the air and slowing the drying process. Nights are longer and cooler which produces the same effect, slower drying. Now we must start to move into the consciousness of winter and take greater care to insure that our plants are thoroughly dry before we water them again. The shorter days of October dictate that we rise even earlier to water if necessary. Each extra hour of daylight is to be cherished by us as well as our plants.

Most of our orchids are well aware of this sea change. The shortening days of late summer have told many genera to finish their growth and prepare to rest. We need to listen too. And look! The last smallest leaves of these highly seasonal plants will have unfolded at the tips of their new growths telling us that their growth cycle is finished for this year. Himalayan dendrobiums of the nobile type and of the section Callista (D. aggregatum et al.) now begin their five months of carefree existence in South Florida. They should be put in a bright spot and given no more water and above all, no more fertilizer until after they have bloomed in Spring. Catasetums, mormodes, Cycnoches, calanthes and other deciduous types should be treated the same way. Whatever moisture nature provides in the increasingly heavy dew and the passing rains that usher in most cold fronts will be adequate for these plants whose native environment is a seasonally monsoon one like ours. B benign neglect suits these genera just fine and what a relief to the conscience of the ever busy orchidist! The truly devoted will group these genera together, preferably at the edge of the growing area and high up where they will receive the maximum of light and air circulation. Grouped thus, the chance of an accidental watering of these while taking care of the more thirsty genera is minimized. Another strategy is to tip the pots of these dormant genera on their sides thus eliminating much natural rainfall and avoiding a misdirected hose spray. Some growers even remove plants that have finished both growing and flowering from their pots entirely. When new growth begins in the Spring they will receive a fresh start in new medium.

Many cattleyas, laelias, oncidiums and phalaenopsis-type dendrobiums will be finishing their growths and should be hardened off with reduced water and fertilizer but not the.....continued.....

MEMBERS' PLANTS

DBOS members, please send images of some of your favorite orchids at any time to your newsletter's editor at morkert.tm@gmail.com so we can share them with our membership. Mother Nature doesn't always allow some of our beautiful 'orchid babies' to bloom at the right time for our monthly meetings. We enjoy seeing your blooming orchids in the newsletter as well as in person on our members' table at the monthly meeting. We often see orchids that we put on our list of orchids to add to our collections. If we get enough of our members to submit photos each month, we can have a virtual orchid display. Please also continue to bring in your blooming orchids to our member's table for judging at our monthly meetings.
